

The Moment Of Truth

Key Word: Repentance

Key Verse: I have baptized you with water; but he will baptize you with the Holy Spirit. Mark 1:8

I'd never met my cousin John, but I'd heard plenty about him from my mother: She was very fond of his parents Elizabeth and Zechariah, but we lived far apart. John was an only child. His parents were quite old when he was born, so he was the center of their lives. Then he got religious and disappeared into the desert for years. When he came out of the desert, full of zeal for God, we thought he must have been training for his new life. I heard about his exciting, new preaching and his strange, symbolic baptism — pushing people right under the surface of the Jordan to symbolize washing away their sins — and I felt an unusual warmth toward him. I knew I had to get to see him.

My mother was angry. She always overprotected me, but I was a grown man now, and she knew she could not keep me away from John. The nearer I got, the crowds grew. They loved him. He was such a fiery preacher. He reminded me of what the old prophets were like. He roared at the crowds, almost threatening them to turn back to God. They went down to be dunked under the water and emerge into a new, better life.

“Are you the Messiah?” someone shouted, but John shook his head. “Not me,” he declared. “There’s someone coming after me whose sandals I’m unworthy to even touch — the Messiah.” It felt like he was looking straight at me when he said it!

I couldn’t hold back. An outside force was urging me to receive John’s baptism. Almost before I knew it I found myself in the Jordan, staring into John’s eyes. He placed one hand on my head and one on my shoulder and said, “I baptize you in the name of God!” Then, before I had time to take breath, I was under the water. It felt like there was a huge light from heaven pouring into me. When I looked up, I could see a dove in the sky just above me, and a loud voice thundering, “You are my beloved son. I’m well pleased with you.”

Thank God for John and his fearless preaching and his baptism! What a moment of truth that was for me! Without that, perhaps I wouldn’t be here now.
